MR. CHILL, Class Advisor

The Class of 1972 dedicates this page to you as a token of our deep appreciation. Our feeling toward you can never be put into words. We have been fortunate to have spent our last two years at East Side with an advisor who has shared our joys and sorrows. But most of all you are a person who really has cared and that makes us all proud of "Our Advisor."

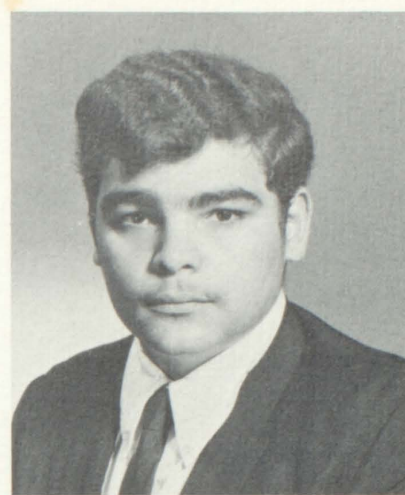

So, Mr. Chill, we the Class of 1972 say, "Thanks."

ANNOUNCER STAFF

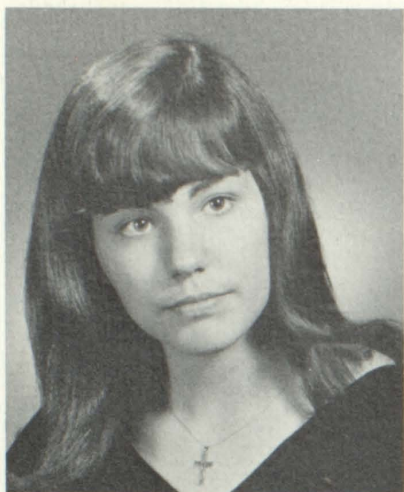

MARIE MARANO
Editor in Chief

The prime purpose of the Announcer is to publish school news not found in the public newspaper. As a scholastic newspaper, it encourages interest in all school activities and promotes school spirit. It also serves as a forum to let students express their opinions in such columns as "Letters to the Editor."

In addition to disseminating information, the Announcer provides an educational experience for its staff by allowing them to learn the excitement of interviewing, the techniques of reporting and newspaper writing, the stimulation of individual thought in its editorial page, the artistry of photography, and the criticism of cartoons.

MR. DiFRANCESCO, Yearbook Advisor

We, the Torch Staff, would like to join the entire Class of 1972 in dedicating this page to our Yearbook Advisor, Mr. DiFrancesco in appreciation for all the time, effort and assistance he has given us in preparing the Torch '72. Throughout the long afternoon meetings, the hardships and difficulties, as well as the lighter moments, Mr. "D" was always there to guide us through our problems and make our work a little more enjoyable. Without his patience, kindness and seemingly endless generosity, we never would have made it. It is then with great pleasure and heartfelt gratitude that we take this opportunity to thank Mr. DiFrancesco for being the marvelous man that he is and for helping make this yearbook a most memorable one for all of us.

THANK YOU MR. "D"

Perez and Zielinski lead the way for Beaman.

Led by leading passer Ronnie Gould East Side compiled a respectable 5-3-1 record in tough competition to take second place in the City League. Mel Perez and Bruce Beaman took State and City honors, respectively. Ron Zielinski, Mel Perez, Andrew Santoro, Steve Broes, Phil Lopez, and Frank Adao anchored the strong East Side line. Two outstanding games were East Side's 56-6 victory over Central, and a 12-8 loss to an unbeaten Barringer eleven.

Coaches ponder previous play.

East Side's Cagers posted a hard-earned 6-12 record against strong city and state competition. Ron Gould, Tom Farmer, Jeff Green, Bruce Beaman and Mike Driver were the starting five seniors who played inspiring basketball in the face of overwhelming odds, for their Red Raider spirit never waned.

BASEBALL

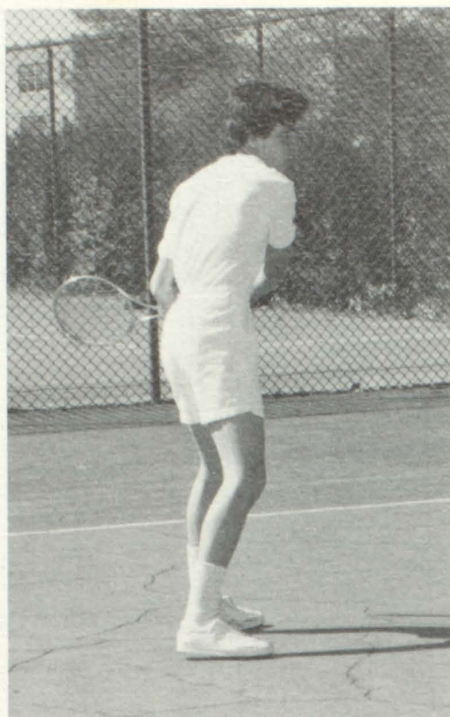

Coach Queli's baseball charges finished the season over .500 with a 12-9 mark and finished third in the City League. Three-year veteran Ronnie Gould, along with Andrew Santoro, Roy Orlowski, David Napoli and Gene Pagnotta formed the nucleus of a scrappy team which always gave maximum effort.

GIRLS' TRACK

In his first year as coach of the swimming team, Mr. Larry Markowitz led his Mermen to the City title. Four-year varsity members Mike Mokoid, Gene Pagnotta, Joe Clemente and Mickey Chencharik took a total of nine medals. Pagnotta, himself, got away with three gold medals. Mokoid won two golds and Clemente one. The Raiders took 8 out of 10 first places in taking their second title in four years.

SOCCER

The Red Raider soccer team continued its habit of winning with a record of 15-3. Gene Azoia, Joe Nunez, co-captain Antonio Sequeira and Sergio Cannabal led the squad to its 11th consecutive City title. Cannabal, Azoia and Sequeira received All-City mention, with the latter two getting All-State recognition. The team finished the season ranking a respectable 15th in state competition.

Joseph De Oliveira ponders strategy.

COACH LEONARD CHILL and TRACKMEN.

Coach Chill advises Gilmer and Smith.

Bruce Beaman on his mark.

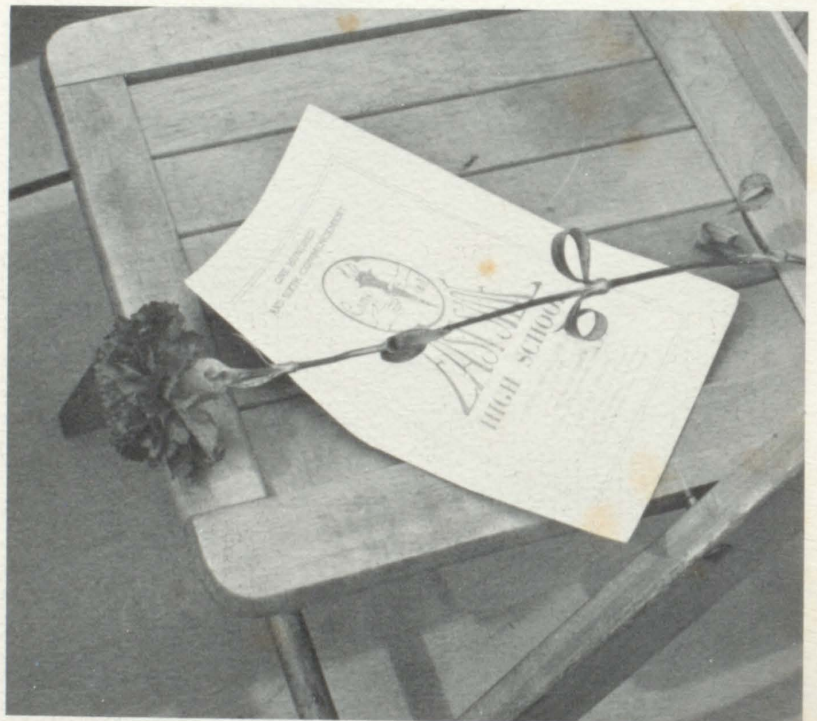

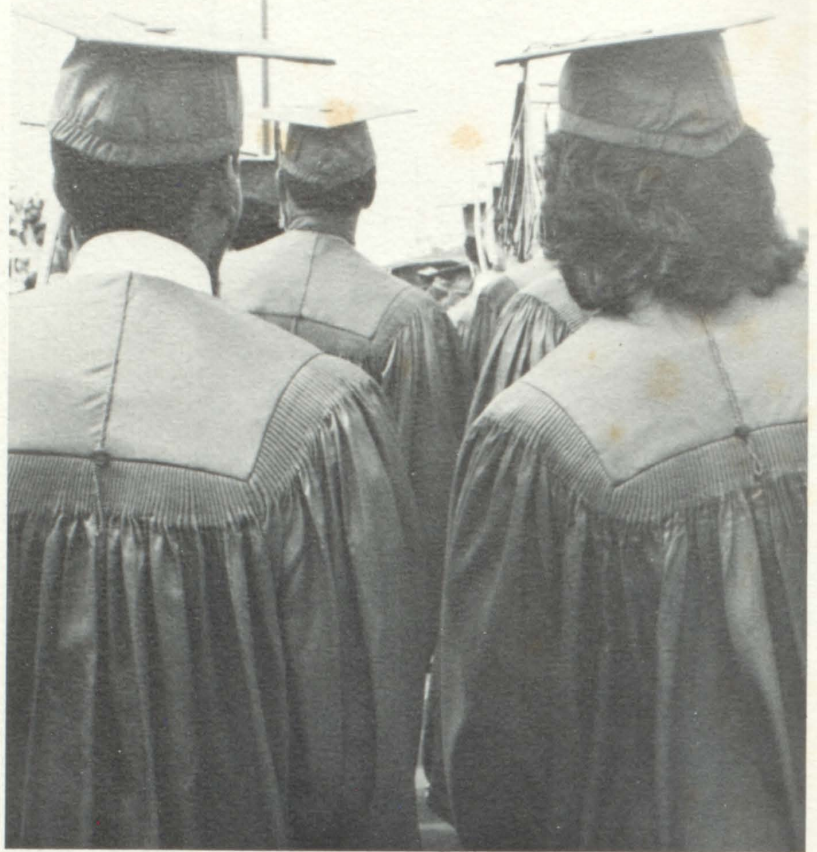

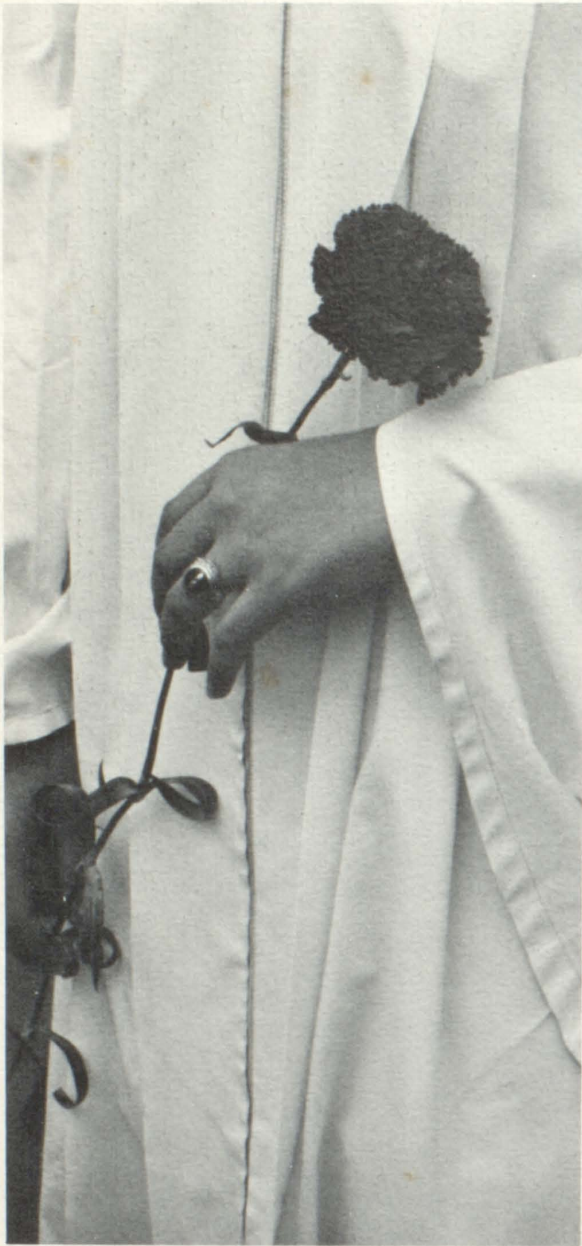

Pat Mitchell and Debbie Davis keep score.

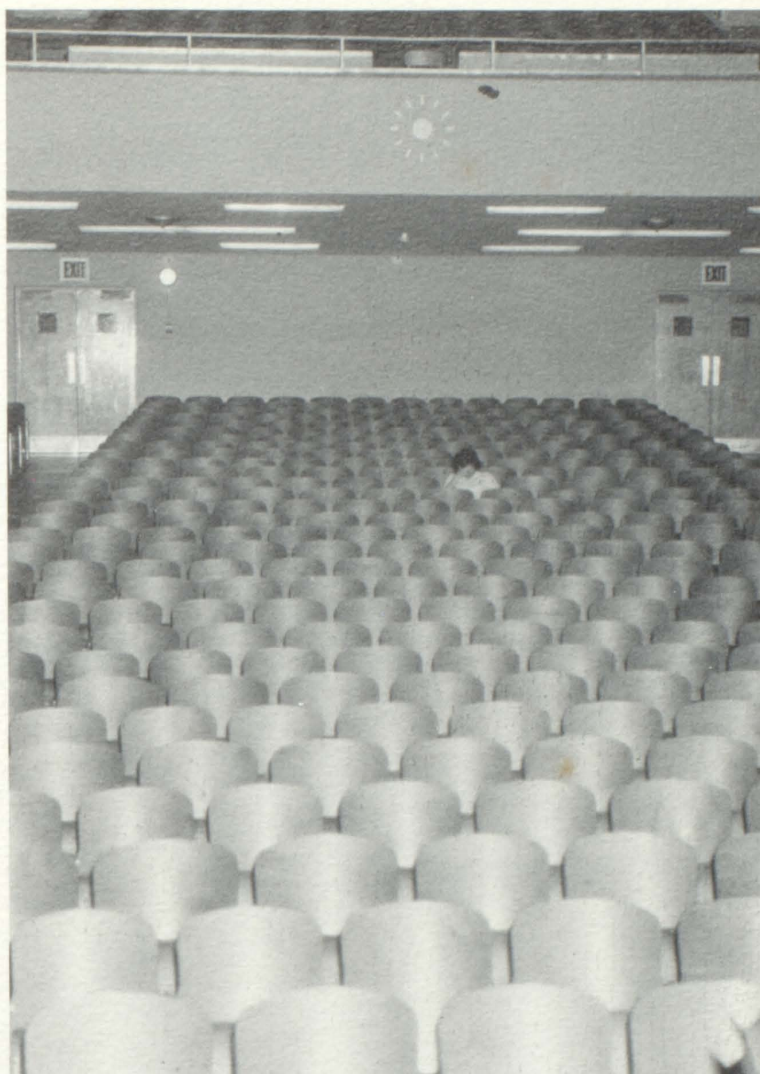

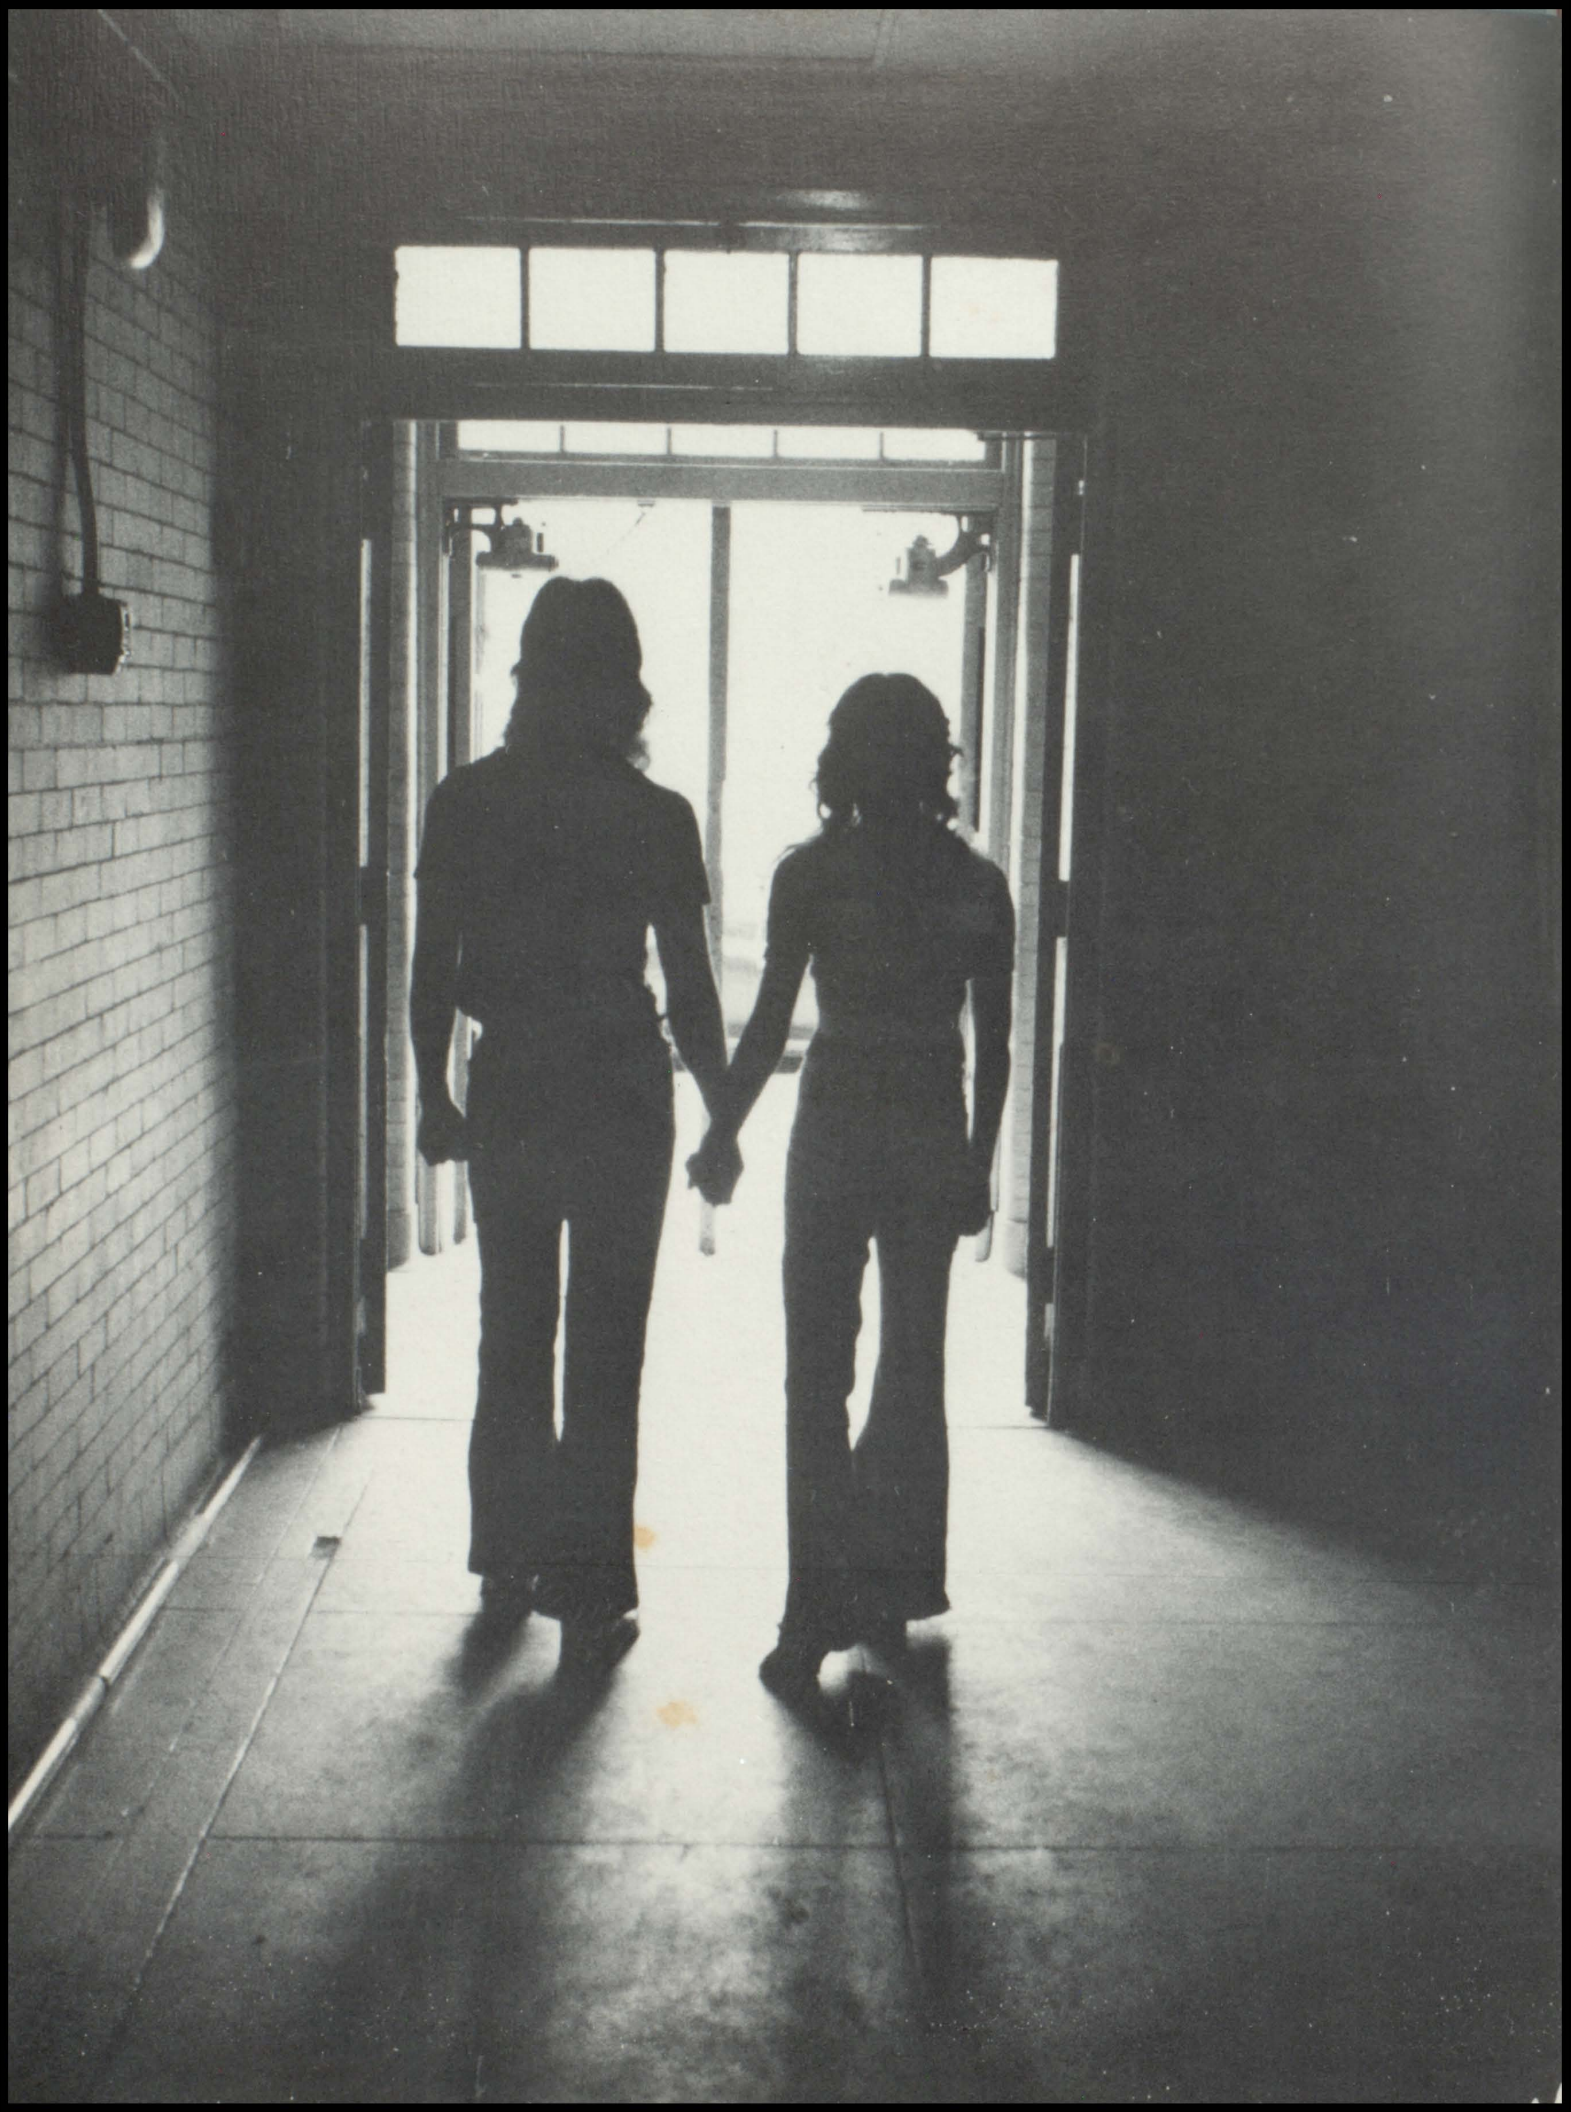

Mike Gonzalez prepares to put the shot.

East Side recorded an impressive 12-3 won and lost record in Track and Field. Stellar performances by Rolan Burns and Gary Prystuak who raced to city championships in the half mile events, were paralleled with outstanding efforts by Mike Gonzales, Bruce Beaman, Mike Cotman, Donald Daniels, James Gilmer and Mike Mokoid.

With tears of sorrow among tears of joy, the Class of '72 bids a fond farewell to East Side. We shall always remember the warmth and patience of our teachers, and the friendships we have made. Our four years at East Side have been happy and profitable, for we have been awakened to the realities of life. We hope East Side's tradition of education and enjoyment continues. Adieu.
